DAILY SENTINEL.

THE GEORGIA ELECTION—A CURIOUS STATE OF THINGS.

The election in Georgia commenced on Monday. The condition of things throughout the State is so remarkable, so curiously different from that which many good people suppose it to be, who derive their impressions from one-sided reports, that we think it worth while to make a statement of facts obtained from sources at once well informed and impartial. From this it will be seen that some of the prevalent notions about the South are entirely erroneous; for example, that it is not the freedmen, but the whites, who are humbly seeking protection against injustice and tyranny; that it is not the Ku Klux Klan (which General Meade believes to be a myth) but Loyal Leagues against which security is sought; and, strangest of all, that the Conservative whites are begging for the colored people who are their friends, the free exercise of the right of suffrage. Our authority for this statement is the Columbus Sun of the 15th inst., which is filled with reports of citizens' committees of investigation, of conferences with Gen. Meade, and of Gen. Meade's orders issued upon the basis of the complaints with a view to the removal of the grievances named.

It seems, from the report of a committee of citizens, that in Columbus (and this they say was general throughout the State,) during the five days when the registry lists were open for correction, no public revision was actually ever made. Persons could not learn on application whether their names were on or off; but were told that the changes were made at Atlanta. After the closing of the registration, however, the directors of the business frankly admitted that the names of 277 persons, registered voters had been stricken from the list, without previous notification. But they would not tell who these "stricken" voters were, (with a few exceptions,) thus leaving each Conservative, white or black, (for only one political description of voter was ostracised,) in doubt whether he was deprived of the right of suffrage or not. The committee also made note of the fact that several of the registry officers, who had custody and free manipulation of the lists, were candidates for office. One of them, the chief of registration, and connected with the Freedmen's Bureau, was up for the State Senate, and, of course, his conservative opponent is among the names rubbed out—as the other candidate, with charming ingenuousness, has confessed. The expunged gentleman was therefore compelled to withdraw from the canvass at almost the last hour, and another was nominated, who may, or may not, prove to be eligible, when election day has brought the secret lists to light. But the gravest complaint against the radicals is this: that they are trying to frighten negroes from voting the Conservative ticket. The committee say that "the negroes are, many of them, intimidated by Loyal Leaguers, and threatened from the rostrum by candidates for office, with certain death if they dare to vote against the radical ticket." Therefore the committee asked Gen. Meade to issue an order, "giving assurance to the colored people that they will be protected in the free exercise of the right of suffrage." In another column we find a card from J. L. Mustian, the obliterated candidate for State Senator, in which he says—"To the colored voters (of whom many are my friends) I would return my thanks for the manifestation of their friendship and support, but for which my name might not have been stricken from the list of voters." In other words, he was declared disqualified because he was popular with the freedmen of the county, and stood some chance of being elected! That the colored Conservatives have some strength in the State is apparent from the report that on Monday 180 freedmen at Marietta formed in line and voted for Gordon, the Conservative candidate for Governor.

Gen. Meade examined the evidence submitted, and appears to have found it satisfactory. The action which he then took would have been taken with better grace at an earlier day, and without waiting for such elaborate proofs of such enormous frauds. The orders which he issued could hardly be disseminated to every part of the State before the election came off; and even if obeyed by the registry officers to whose knowledge they may be brought, they will probably fail to cause an honest election throughout the State. The orders in brief are these:—Persons are forbidden to use improper means to compel laborers to leave their work to go to political meetings; laborers are authorized to meet at night in peaceful assembly to discuss political questions; the carrying of arms in the vicinity of polling places is strictly prohibited; men who have been stricken from the lists will still be allowed to vote, separately; and the ballots, with the names of such voters indorsed thereon, will be sent to headquarters for examination into the merits of each case. The General, however, declined to remove the officers guilty of the wrongs complained of, though he did "rebuke" one of them.—The Conservatives are thankful for whatever show of fairness they can get, and their gratitude is quite copiously expressed in the Columbus Sun.

Honorable men of all parties, in every portion of the country, will regret that Gen. Meade had not adopted the measures—and juster and more effective ones than these—of his own accord, at least a month before the election. All but political knaves are interested in knowing the exact strength of conservatism and radicalism in the South, with a view to the best future policy. But until commanding Generals are more decided in the avowal of their impartiality, we shall continue to be deceived on that important point.

A CASE FOR THE AUTHORITIES.

General Brown issued an order recently, cautioning his Bureau agents against taking part in the present political canvass in Virginia. But General Brown himself did not hesitate to introduce to a crowd of negroes at the African church, Thursday night a Bureau man, (General Whittlesey,) who not only told the negroes how they should vote on the question of the Constitution, but uttered language for which he should be arrested by the military or indicted by the Grand Jury. As reported in the Dispatch, Gen. Whittlesey said:

He acknowledged to have been solicitous three years ago in regard to a war of races, but his solicitude had been banished by their good conduct. "There was no fear on this score now," said he, "if a war of races comes, it must come from the other side. I can, therefore, assure you that should it come, all the resources of the Government will be expended in your defence, not theirs."

Could language more incendiary—better calculated to engender dangerous ideas among the negroes and encourage an outbreak—be used than this promise, which they take to be official and reliable, that if a war of races comes, all the resources of the government will be employed on their side! Who is this great General Whittlesey, that he can speak for the Government and can pledge it to a certain line of action? And what is to be thought of General Brown, who, after issuing the late order, himself goes upon the hustings to back up a partisan slang whanger, and listens silently, perhaps approvingly, to such language as is quoted? We hope General Schofield will give his attention to the matter.—Richmond Whig.

The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a respectable volume. In order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U S Commissioner, must accompany the petition and, when filed in the commencement of proceedings in bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. "In other words, the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over." On this point decisions have been variant. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10 As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: "Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value $500; five hundred dollars; also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon executions or other process by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1864. A valuable counsel suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him, free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $700, besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11 It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made to allot to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to cases in bankruptcy proceedings, section 46 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for its fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid and secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX, that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets, the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors.

13 Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $50 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the time which the Act makes as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no debtor will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness who have cannot pay in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness, in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

HO! FOR OFFICE.

It is understood that the Head Centre and leaders of the Radical party in North Carolina have given out that all the offices of the State, big or little, are to be filled only by those who voted the Radical ticket. What is to become of those already elected on the Radical ticket, both for State and county officers, who did not vote the Radical ticket in the late election? There are some who did not vote it and yet were elected by Radical votes. Indeed, we apprehend that almost the only men who are really competent to fill the places to which they have been elected by Radical votes in the State, are Conservative men. Besides some Conservatives have been elected by Conservatives.

We regret, that the condition of any Conservative in the State, places him in circumstances which force upon him the necessities of office. The identification of any man with the Radical party in this State, is a punishment and a derogation for which the perquisites of office cannot pay. It is indeed a hardship that any man should be compelled to sacrifice principle for bread. Yet it may be so from sheer compulsion.

Office seeking has become one of the chief sources of corruption and demoralization, in the country. It is the great source of danger to the Republic, which has set a price upon every man's head and forces a sale often against the convictions and real wishes of men. Hence we have made it a point through life to guard young men against the bewitching and destructive influences of office. Habit and necessity soon render the means by which office is to be gained allowable if not commendable, and many a man who has learned to connect the means of living alone with office, readily learns to think that the means to obtain it are fully justified by the end.

If the Radicals could fill the offices of the State even decently, we should not grieve if they apply the party screws rigidly, but the material interests of the State will suffer so severely at many points in Radical hands, that we should not be surprised, if Conservatives can be bought up, to see vacancies created very soon for some of them. The complexion of the State Judiciary for instance presents a most lamentable picture. There is hardly enough law on the Superior Court bench under the radical programme, to constitute a respectable tribunal for the trial of any cause. Should this force upon litigants to make haste to withdraw their suits from the dockets to be referred for settlement to the counsel for plaintiff and defendant, and should lead the people to settle all their difficulties in the same way without going into Court at all, it would bring about a state of things devoutly to be wished.

If justice and right were all that every man sought, we should have no use for judicial tribunals presided over by men who know little of law or of justice either.

STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

The discouragements of the times and the pecuniary difficulties of the people, have well-nigh destroyed entirely the ardor of agriculturalists in that important organization, the State Agricultural Society. We regret this. If such an association was ever a necessity in this State, it is far more important at the present time.

The agricultural interests of North Carolina can never be protected and improved, until systematic regular field labor is restored, and until some system is established in regard to time, prices, &c. If the labor in the State cannot be regulated and brought under proper control, we must have labor that can be; otherwise agriculture must; in a great measure, be abandoned. The most efficient agencies for the regulation of the whole matter, is the organization of an Agricultural Association in each county, under proper regulations, all of which should be auxiliary to the State Society.

The good to result from such organizations either in systematizing the labor we already have or in procuring what is needed, is incalculable. There is much said about immigration and the introduction of foreign labor, through the agency of Immigration Societies, but until we are prepared for such efforts by properly organized societies in all the counties, operating through a State Agricultural Association, but little permanent good can be effected.

We call the attention of our planters to this subject thus early, in order that the matter may be discussed, and that the efforts of all who are interested in the matter may be directed to the early re-organization of the State and county Societies. We invite discussion in these columns.

PITT COUNTY AFFAIR.—It is stated that there were no females injured in any way in the late Carney affair in Pitt county.—All the facts we presume will be brought out by an investigation into the tragical affair, which we suppose will be had. The Carneys appear to have been desperate men and had made themselves amenable to arrest and punishment. The impression seems to be that they might have been arrested without endangering the lives of innocent persons and destroying property.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT.—The District Court of the United States, His Honor, Geo. W. Brooks, Judge, will commence its regular session in the Court Room, in the Custom House building, to-morrow (Monday) morning. Much important business will be brought forward this term.—Wil. Star.

TRUCK FARMING &c.

Immense sums of money have been made in late years, upon small investments in land, manures &c., around Norfolk and Portsmouth, Virginia, by raising vegetables, early fruits and planting of vineyards. The business is largely followed, in Norfolk, Princess Anne, Nansemond and Isle of Wight counties, and recently this business has been extending into this State on the lines of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad and also the Raleigh and Gaston.

We learn that the truck and fruit-farms which have been started on the Wilmington and Weldon Road are promising good results.

We learn that a good beginning has also been made in Halifax and Warren counties. Parties are now engaged in arranging for extensive peach orchards in Warren.—We learn that that enterprising man, Col. J. M. Heck, is encouraging this movement and Col. Fremont of Wilmington has contributed largely in promoting this scheme on the Wilmington road.

The demand for early fruits and vegetables in the Northern cities is enormous, exceeding perhaps the product of these articles for years to come, and the prices are such as to encourage very large competition. Early strawberries are said to sell at $2 per quart in New York, and we have heard of a gentleman in Surry county, Va., whose June apple crop last year was estimated at $13,000.

The improvements which have been made of late in the preservation of fruits and vegetables, in the manner of packing and the facilities afforded by the Railroads and Steamers for their prompt and quick delivery, enable the truck and fruit planters to do a fine business.

We are not, however, disposed to encourage planters and agriculturists, to cease their endeavors to improve their lands and to abandon the culture of cotton, tobacco, corn, wheat, and the culture of grasses, for truck raising, vineyards, &c. There is land enough and labor enough, if judiciously arranged and properly directed to secure the production of everything which can be produced for market.

The surplus labor of the country hitherto devoted to no particular business could be at once employed in the culture of fruits, vegetables and vineyards. If the profitless, thriftless and indolent populations of our North Carolina towns could be persuaded to engage in the pleasant and profitable toil of truck and fruit raising, the now almost useless lands that surround our towns, would soon be converted into the most beautiful and profitable gardens, &c. The intelligent and enterprising citizen who would inaugurate schemes of this kind, would be entitled to the thanks of the community.

THE IMPEACHMENT TRIAL.

It will be seen that Mr. Bingham commenced on yesterday his speech. This is the last speech in the trial. After he concludes, the Senate will probably discuss the matter a day or two and then will come the decision. Excitement seems to be quite high in Washington and the telegram announces that bets are being made in favor of impeachment three to one. This fact discloses a singular state of things.

The President is arraigned on a charge of high crimes and misdemeanors—a charge which is not sustained by the specifications and which the impeachers failed to prove in every instance. There is hardly a pretence set up now, that the President has violated either any law or the Constitution, while his counsel have clearly shewn, that the President violated no law and that what he did was in defence and support of the Constitution. The conviction and removal of the President is based by the Radicals chiefly upon the ground that it is a public necessity, by which it is understood, that they deem it a party necessity.

If the people of the United States have deliberately made up their minds to surrender the Constitution of the Republic, and with it, their liberties and government, they will quietly submit to the conviction of the President, and of course will submit to what may follow; but if there is virtue enough left in the land, and any love for the Constitution, the conviction of Andrew Johnson will seal the doom of the Radical party. One or the other must follow,—either a free constitutional government is doomed or the Radical party. May Heaven defend the right.

CALIFORNIA.—The Richmond Whig, after noticing the rapidity with which California and the West are filling up with emigrants, very properly says that the inducements offered by the Southern States, so far as good cheap lands are concerned, render the South more desirable than any new State.

California is rapidly filling up with immigrants from the Atlantic States. The exceedingly low fares, caused by the competition of the rival lines of steamers to California, it is said, are flooding San Francisco with more people than can find employment, and the newspapers of that city are beginning to complain of the rapidly increasing surplus of population. They say trade is dull, wages low and provisions high, and that persons of limited means, who are able to raise the money to get out there, find themselves unable to get back. They deny also that San Francisco is any longer "a new country," in the sense of needing fresh immigration. As it is with California, so it is with the West. The most attractive field to immigration now, whether from the Northern States or Europe, is undoubtedly the South. Here more can be had, with less inconvenience, and with greater future advantages, than in any new country. In fact, in our present condition, we present to the immigrant the combined advantages of new and old.

When from the ranks of the people there shall arise some new Thad Stevens and Ben Butler to impeach these impeachers for maladministration in a thousand ways, obstructing trade, commerce, agriculture manufactures, education, every human interest in the nation, neither the law's delay nor the insolence of office will stay proceedings or invert judgment. This the President knows and Congress dreads.—The Revolution.

ALLEGED FRAUDS IN THE CASWELL ELECTIONS.—The Danville Times gives the following particulars in regard to the alleged frauds in the election in Caswell. We hope that Gen. Canby will require something else besides ex parte statements and affidavits. Both sides should be fully heard, and we hope the Conservatives of Caswell will ask for strict and impartial justice in this matter. The Times says:

The Freedmen's Bureau agent from Graham, N. C., was in Yanceyville last Wednesday, taking the depositions of negroes with regard to alleged frauds in the election. Several gentlemen feeling a deep interest in the result, went into the court house to see what was done, but they were invited out—every man who had a white skin, except Stevens, the candidate on the Radical ticket who was defeated. He was allowed to remain. The depositions of all the black rogues and rascals who had been disfranchised for crime, were taken, to prove that it was not a fair election.

When night came, he adjourned from the court house to Stevens' house, and there they carried on their disgraceful work until a late hour of the night.

Were such proceedings ever tolerated before in any civilized government? To what length will our enemies go? God grant that the day may soon come, when the Democrats of the North will get the power. It will be a glorious day for us.

NORTH CAROLINA.

The people of the Old North State have our most profound sympathy in their affliction.

After a most gallant contest, they have been turned over to the tender mercies of niggers and scallawags.

Absolute ruin now stares the noble people of North Carolina in the face.

How the majority was manufactured, by which they were defeated, we have had no time to learn. Masters in the arts of chicanery and fraud had charge of the election. The same persons, in many cases, acted as registrars, poll-keepers and candidates, and the result, as declared, is a majority for the odious "constitution."

May God, in his infinite mercy, soon send deliverance to the people of that noble State.

And may the lessons taught us by the election there, be carefully pondered over and laid to heart.

The man who is lukewarm in such an emergency as that now upon us will bring a lasting disgrace on himself and his descendants.—Norfolk Virginian.

ALTA VELA-BINGHAM, BUTLER & CO.—The exposure of the part taken by Butler, Bingham, Stevens and Logan, in the big Alta Vela speculation of a million or more, by urging a forcible seizure of the island on the President, in a letter dated the 9th of March, after impeachment had commenced and notice had been served on the President to answer at the bar of the Senate, has produced a great sensation in the Senate and in the community. These ardent impeachers, who had arraigned the President on the most trivial pretexts, were the men who urged him, during the session of Congress, to commit an act of war, the power to do which belongs to Congress alone, and that entirely for the advancement of pecuniary interests. The dates and circumstances of this transaction; the withdrawal of Judge Black from the counsel after having accepted that position and conferred with those who are still acting; the fact that Colonel Schaffer, one of the attorney's for this monstrous claim, was chief of "bottled up" Butler's staff; the signatures of these four Managers to the paper and those of other Radical chiefs, have all conspired to produce unusual excitement here. The question is asked naturally enough, if the President had yielded to this indecent pressure of the four Managers, by making war to recover the claim which they favored so strongly, would he have been pursued with the rancor that he has been? Does not his refusal to lend the government to this speculation explain the motive of the persecution?

What is thought of the men who, pinned as these Managers are toward the President and claiming to represent "all the people of the United States," should address him a petition of this kind, in the nature of a persuasion or a threat, on the very eve of his trial? These are the virtuous Managers who are so indignant about the President's alleged indecorum and who prate about delicacy, honor and integrity! The immaculate Butler, Bingham, Stevens and Logan, all of whom contributed more or less to, and some of whom, like Stevens, were the active engineers of, the Pacific Railroad swindle, which Washburne, a brother radical and equally virtuous when his own interests are involved, recently declared to be the most deplorable spectacle ever witnessed in the House of Representatives. When the galleries were packed with male and female lobbyists, and the seats of members were invaded by the corrupt hirelings of that job, who came in to second the patriotic exertions of their friends on the floor! This dirty transaction deserves to take its place in the same annals, and to enhance still further the exceptional reputation of Butler and his associate Managers.—Wash. Corres. N. Y. Herald.

MR. LINCOLN ON CARPET BAGGERS.—When it was proposed to reconstruct Louisiana during the war, and fill the offices of that State and its representation in Congress with foreign adventurers, "Old Abe" wrote the following letter, which is applicable to these times. Under date of November 21, 1863, Mr. Lincoln wrote as follows:

DEAR SIR:—Dr. Kennedy, bearer of this, has some apprehension that Federal officers, not citizens of Louisiana, may be set up as candidates for Congress in that State. In my view, there could be no possible object in such an election. We do not particularly need members of Congress from those States to enable us to get along with legislation here. What we do want is conclusive evidence that respectable citizens of Louisiana are willing to be members of Congress, and to swear support to the Constitution; and that other respectable citizens there are willing to vote for them and send them.—To send a parcel of Northern men here as representatives, elected, as would be understood (and perhaps really so) at the point of the bayonet, would be disgraceful and outrageous; and were I a member of Congress here, I would vote against admitting any such man to a seat.

THE TWIN-MONSTERS.—Two of Dante's devils were named, as translated into English, "Dirty Dog" and "Foul Mouth." There are two American devils that those names fit—one is Forney, the other Beast Butler. These two wretches fill places in the politics of the country from which every man of any pretensions to honesty and decency recoils. Butler has more talent than Forney, but it would be impossible for him to be more unscrupulous. Butler may not inaptly be likened to that monster encountered by the famous Paladin Rinaldo, which was described as "half hog and half serpent."—Richmond Whig.

The Democratic Legislature of Ohio have resolved to remain in session until the impeachment trial is ended, in order that they may fill the vacancy occasioned by the promotion of Mr. Wade.—Exchange.

Douglas Bell offers at his store on Fayetteville Street, a fine lot of Flour, Java Coffee, &c.

W. H. Morriss & Co. offers fine Furniture at cost prices. Now is the time.

TROOPS.—The two Companies belonging to the 8th U. S. Infantry, Col. Bomford's command, which have been stationed here for some time, left on Sunday last for Charleston. The soldiers of the 8th have conducted themselves with propriety generally.—The soldiers of the 6th, who take their places, seem to be a fine body of men.

THE FRIEND OF TEMPERANCE.—This excellent temperance paper, published by R. H. Whitaker, of this city, has been enlarged and improved, and is now published weekly at $1,50. Mr. W. is ardently devoted to this good cause and he is efficiently assisted by his lady, Mrs. Whitaker, known to other days as "Minnie Ray," in the editorial conduct of the paper. It is well deserving of patronage.

SQUARE AND COMPASS.—This excellent Masonic Weekly, published by Messrs. Best and Syme, of this city, is now one of the neatest and best Masonic papers in the country. The craft should patronize it liberally.

FRUIT DAMAGED.—The Norfolk Day Book says that a late frost has damaged early fruit in that section and put back the truck planters. We hear of some damage to cherries, &c., but the impression is that the prospect for peaches and apples was never better.

THE Roanoke News says that one hundred and twenty five colored men had the manliness at the late election to vote the Conservative ticket, in Halifax county.—We judge that several thousand in the State voted the Conservative ticket, from what we have learned.

SOUTHERN JOURNAL OF MUSIC.—This is a good Southern Monthly Musical Journal published in Louisville, Ky. Besides the literary reading, each number contains two or three pieces of good Music. Price $2 per annum. We hope it is liberally patronized.

DRIED FRUIT.—The business of fruit and berry drying has become quite an important one in the counties above Raleigh.—Forsythe, and other counties adjoining have done a large business. E. A. Vogler, Esq., of Salem, that enterprising man, has contributed largely to the enlarging of the blackberry and fruit business. We hope our people will take time by the fore lock this year and increase the business largely. Forsythe county alone shipped, we believe, last year, about $150,000 worth of dried fruit. Others can do as well. It is just that much added to the wealth of the country, which would otherwise have been lost or worthless. We must learn to recuperate by saving or making a shift. Every shilling must be saved.

THE Conservative State Convention of Virginia will meet in Richmond, on the 7th. inst.

Mr. Caleb Meares, of Norfolk, committed suicide by taking strychnine on Friday last, and was found dead in one of the box cars not far from the Depot, at Portsmouth, Va.

MR. POLLARD, a land broker of Norfolk, offers 33,000 acres of land in one body in this State for sale. We presume it is in the turpentine country.

THE NEGROES AS VOTERS.—It is doubtful whether a State now in the Union would not to day repudiate colored suffrage by an overwhelming majority were the question submitted. There is, therefore, good reason why the Southern States so universally resist the Republican plans of reconstruction. If the comparatively few colored citizens of Connecticut are unfit to vote, so must be the thousands and thousands in the Carolinas. If Michigan and Minnesota, Ohio and Pennsylvania, cannot control the action of their handful of these unfortunate people at the ballot box, and so must exclude them altogether, what can Alabama and Arkansas, Mississippi and Louisiana, do with them swarming at the polls in myriads?—Parker Pillsbury.

The white men of Craven county have but little to reproach themselves with in the result of the late election. Those who remained from the polls alone will, in after days, regret that they permitted any considerations to keep them away; but the great mass of our people will remember with pride their efforts to stay the black wave of radicalism.

Our county has probably a larger yankee population than any other in the State, and we feel confident that more Northern men voted the Conservative ticket than there were native whites who voted with the radical negro worshippers.—Newbern Journal of Commerce.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

OXFORD, N. C. May 2d., 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—County Court opens here on Monday. There is no business of special importance to be transacted. Our County Court is usually presided over by very intelligent magistrates. S. A. Paschall, Esq., is Chairman. The people here regret very much, (I mean the white people,) the defeat of A. Landis, Sr., our worthy County Court Clerk and W. A. Philpott, our popular Sheriff.

Roguery here is rampant. The house of one of our wealthiest citizens, (Mr. John Blacknall's,) was entered on last night by some one, no doubt bent on robbery. The rogue became alarmed and left the house precipitately, without getting anything of much value; carrying off a pair of pants and Mr. B's. keys to his crib.

Yours, &c., A. B. C.

SENIOR SPEAKING AT THE UNIVERSITY.

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., May 2, 1868.

To the Editors of the Sentinel:

GENTLEMEN:—The Senior speaking of this Institution began on the 29th ult. and continued two days. The weather was pleasant and everything passed off agreeably. The speakers were encouraged by the presence of the ladies, which contributed, to a considerable extent, to the complete success of the festival.

The entertainment was opened on the first day with a very eloquent address by Mr. William S. Pearson, of Morganton, on Daniel Webster. He was followed by a good many others, but none of any particular note, except Mr. Thomas A. McNeill, of Robeson County, who spoke of his fatherland "Scotland."

The exercises of the second day were opened by Mr. Eugene Morehead, of Greensboro', on the "Old North State," and closed by Mr. Paul B. Means, of Cabarrus County, on the "Evils and Instabilities of Democracies."

All of the speakers acquitted themselves well. The best speakers are as follows,—They rank in the order of their names: Messrs. Means, Pearson, Busbee and McNeill.

The following are the grades of the Class, there being twenty Seniors: The first distinction was awarded to Messrs. Busbee, Bdrgwyn and Morehead. Mr. Busbee was awarded the honor of speaking the valedictory at Commencement. Messrs. Morehead and Burgwyn with the salutatories.

The second distinction was awarded to Messrs. Harper, Pearson and A. Graham.

The third distinction was awarded to Messrs. Fetter, Horner, Means, Strayhorn and Jones.

Messrs. McNiell and Purcell were regarded as mitemen, but not regularly graded.—Speeches were awarded them with the other mitemen at Commencement.

The ladies are respectfully invited to be present at our next Commencement, and if they come, we promise them a very pleasant time.

Gov. Seymour, the gallant Connecticut Democrat, will deliver the address before the two Literary Societies, and the eloquent preacher, Rev Mr. Moran, will pronounce the Commencement sermon.

Long life to the University!

VIDETTE.

THE COTTON CROP OF 1867.

We have now the means of forming a pretty fair opinion of the quantity of cotton made last year in the South. The estimates which have been put forth from time to time will all prove erroneous—such estimates, we mean, as assumed that the quantity would be in the neighborhood of 2,500,000 bales. The maximum of weekly deliveries, commencing on the first of September, was reached in the week ending February 7th, which was 86,000 bales in the aggregate. Since then the number has been steadily decreasing, and for the week ending April 24th, the aggregate was only 18,000 bales, being 8,000 less than for the previous week, showing that the stock in planters' hands was so much reduced at that date as to promise very light deliveries for the remainder of the season—probably under 150,000 bales. Up to the 24th. of April the total from September 1st. received at all points was 2,009,734 bales, and for the same time last year it was 1,755,000 bales, showing so far an increase of 245,734 bales in the crop of 1867 over that of 1866, or about 13 per cent. The probability is that the receipts will aggregate about 2,150,000 bales on the 1st. September. We do not think that it will exceed these figures.—The quantity shipped to Great Britain up to April 24th. was 1,078,964 bales, and to the continent 368,114 bales. Stock remaining on hand at that date 234,456 bales, leaving for American consumption 329,746 bales.—Pet. Express.

Married, in this city, a few days since, by a minister (colored) of the Gospel, a genuine Federal white soldier to a black "oman." May they live long and prosper.—Montgomery Advertiser.

IMPEACHMENT AND OTHER MATTERS.

WASHINGTON, May 4, P. M.

HOUSE.—A committee of seven, with power to send for persons and papers was appointed on the Donnelly and Washburne case.

A motion to expunge Saturday's proceedings from the record, caused much excitement, but was withdrawn after Donnelly and Washburne had withdrawn their offensive remarks.

Pending a motion to adjourn Donnelly asked leave that Washburne and he should imitate Thomas and Stanton, and take a drink. Washburne claimed to be a temperance man.

COURT:—Bingham disavowed any partizan prejudice. He was there as the representative of the people. He applied the term "hired" frequently to the President's Counsel, and said that Evarts' speech had more Latin than law, more rhetoric than logic, and more intellectual pyrotechnics than either.

He argued that the President had no right to construe the laws, and that the Supreme Court had no possible jurisdiction in the case.

He said the gentleman who opened this case claimed that the President may judicially construe the Constitution for himself; and may judicially determine whether your laws are passed under the Constitution, and whether he shall execute them. I repeat this that it may be buried into the hearts of the Senators, that the laws were only to be executed if it pleased His highness Andrew Johnson first King of the United States. If the President can do this as insisted upon by his advocates, I insist that the Constitution, which we have been taught to revere as the bulwark of our liberties, is a Constitution of anarchy, a Constitution which invites violation of the law, not obedience to it. I insist further that if Senators by their judgment should countenance this plea, they would be the architects of their country's ruin; they would give over this land to endless chaos and anarchy. No matter what demagogues may say about it out of this Chamber, the issue is anarchy in this land, and the recording Angel of history is ready to trace it. That is all of it. It is the head and front of Andrew Johnson's offending, that he has assumed to himself the prerogative of interrupting the Constitution, and deciding upon the law for himself. In spite of all the technicalities, this was it. With all respect to Senators and to the able counsel after the weeks and weeks of discussion on this case, if there is one man who does not understand this simple position, then God in His infinite wisdom has denied him reason.

The White House was crowded all day with visitors.

The Star has the following:—Impeachment stock fluctuat. Hour by hour to-day it is steady. Why it is, is not demonstrated. The President and his counsel are confident of his acquittal. They figure out, not more at the outside than thirty-two votes for conviction

TRIAL OF MR. DAVIS—VIRGINIA MATTERS.

RICHMOND, May 4, P. M.

George Cahom, U. S. Commissioner, was to-day, appointed Mayor of this City by Gen. Schofield, vice Joseph Mayo, removed.

The Counsel on both sides in the case of Hon Jefferson Davis, with the consent of Judge Underwood, have agreed on June 3rd, for the trial, and Judge Chase has been telegraphed to for his assent.

Many of the delegates to the Republican and Conservative State Conventions, which meet Wednesday and Thursday, have arrived. It is the general belief that Gov. Welles will be the Republican nominee for Governor.

Messrs B Johnson, Barbour, Col. Withers and John L. Millson, are spoken of in connection with the nomination for Governor by the Conservatives.

Hunnicutt, this evening, at a meeting in the Park, denounced Welles and his "whole crew."

HARRY'S HORSE.

The baby lies in her mother's arms,
Quiet, and pale, and thin;
But the little head is once more raised
As Harry comes bounding in.

A wooden horse in his hand he holds,
Dark gray, with a long black mane;
And an eager, longing look lights up
The pale little face again.

"No, baby dear, I will hold it close,
But I cannot give it to you;
I'm afraid you would let it fall, and break
My horse so pretty and new."

But the pale little eager face still pleads,
Outstretched is the small hand still—
He stands for a moment, then holds it out,
"I'll lend it to the baby, I will."

That day is past, and he finds it again
Where the baby had thrown it aside;
Her cruel red, with its silver bells,
Still fast to the bridle tied.

There's a touch of paint off the bright green stick,
And a chip off the horse's ear;
But oh! see that to the boy's blue eye
Brings the quickly gathering tear.

And while Harry lives he will still be glad
That he lent her his horse that day;
For the baby has gone where never again
Can she ask with his toys to play.

SCIENTIFICAL RASCALITY IN TRADE.

It is no longer a secret of the chemist's laboratory that clear, golden syrups can be made from starch and sulphuric acid; that delicious wines and brandies can be made from beet root, with others for flavor; that a barrel of peanuts can be transformed into excellent coffee; that lard can absorb an enormous quantity of water in certain conditions; that, in fact, there seems no limit to the adulterations that an intelligent and dishonest chemist can practice upon his fellow men. All these marvels of chemical science have in these latter days become degraded into mere tricks of trade, and their chief beauty is in their capacity to enable unscrupulous dealers to lighten the pockets and destroy the stomachs of the confiding and consuming public. Concerning the article of champagne, a writer tell us that it is made from a thousand different substances—even refined petroleum. Yes from the fiery benzoles a sparkling, bubbling champagne can be produced, which will delight the eye, tickle the palate, gladden the heart momentarily—but quicken our paces towards the graveyard. This is a new use for petroleum, which those who have been experimenting with it as an agency for generating steam have little dreamed of.—Who can say that the Pennsylvania oil territory, now considered mostly worthless, may not some day be regenerated into the greatest champagne producing country in the world.

A NEW WAY TO QUIET THE BABY.—We learn that a few days since a lady had occasion to go into the basement of her house to attend to some duty, and left her baby, a few months old, in charge of a young girl, in the upper part of the house. The youngster got fretful, and to please it, the girl tied it to a sheet, let it out of the window, three stories from the ground, and when seen, was amusing it by raising it up and down in the sheet which she held by her hands inside. The performance was discovered by some of the neighbors, who were not long putting a stop to it.—Galena (Ill.) Gazette.

An English paper has discovered the line which divides a distinction from a difference. It says that "a little difference frequently makes many enemies;" while a "little distinction attracts hosts of friends to the person on whom it is conferred."

AGENTS WANTED FOR THE

OFFICIAL HISTORY OF THE WAR,

ITS CAUSES, CHARACTER, CONDUCT AND RESULTS.

By ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS.

A BOOK FOR ALL SECTIONS AND ALL PARTIES.

THIS GREAT WORK PRESENTS THE ONLY complete and impartial analysis of the causes of the War yet published, and gives those interior lights and shadows of the great conflict only known to those high officers who watched the flood-tide of revolution from its fountain springs, and which were so accessible to Mr. Stephens, from his position as second officer of the Confederacy.

To a public that has been surfeited with APPARENTLY SIMILAR PRODUCTIONS, we promise a change of fare both agreeable and salutary, and an intellectual treat of the highest order. The Great American War has AT LAST found a historian worthy of its importance, and at whose hands it will receive that moderate, candid and impartial treatment which truth and justice so urgently demand.

The intense desire everywhere manifested to obtain this work, its official character and ready sale, combined with an increased commission, make it the best subscription book ever published.

One Agent in Easton, Pa., reports 72 subscribers in three days.

One in Boston, Mass., 105 subscribers in five days.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in Schedule B., except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whom it is made, may stamp it before it is used; and if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument, to appropriately stamp it, renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars.

Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publication, &c., in which case these, as the original process, severally require stamps.

Writs of scire facias are subject to stamp duty as original process.

The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits of legal proceedings.

Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at any time designated, are subject to stamp duty as Promissory Notes.

The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say, for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of its assignment, there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of five cents.

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps to which this instrument is liable, under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties.

In conveyance of real estate, the law provides that the stamp affixed must answer to the value of the estate or interest conveyed.

No stamp is required on warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rates required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgment of the instrument which is not stamped.

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE

SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal
